2. Enforceable Debt

The Eligible Shipments and related payment obligations shall be a valid and legally enforceable indebtedness of the Obligor to the Insured in the Obligor's Country.

3. Duty To Disclose Information

The Insured is under a duty to make a fair presentation of the risk when completing the Proposal Form and also following requests by the Insurer for additional information during the application for insurance or renewal of insurance. The Insured must continue to disclose promptly all new information that may affect the Insurer's decision to provide insurance cover and the terms upon which cover is offered.

If the Insured breaches the duty to make a fair presentation of the risk, the Insurer may have the right to avoid the Policy and reclaim from the Insured any claim payments that have been made; the Policy may be treated as if it had been entered into on different terms and/or there may be a reduction in the amount payable in respect of any claim. For ease of reference, a copy of the Proposal Form is appended to this Policy.

Indemnification for a claim shall be paid in accordance with the original Due Dates established by the Insured Contract and the Insured shall be obligated to pay Premium in accordance with the terms of this Policy up to the original Due Date of each payment. The Insurer shall have the option, at their sole discretion, to accelerate the payment of any indemnification for a claim in which case the Insured shall be obligated to pay the Insurers the unpaid portion of the total Premium due for the balance of the Policy Period, which amount shall be credited against and shall reduce such indemnification.

2. Allocation of Moneys Received Prior to the Date of Loss

Unless agreed otherwise in writing by the Insurer, any monies or other benefits received by or on behalf of the Insured prior to the Date of Loss in respect of Shipments of goods and/or services made by the Insured to the Obligor, shall for the purpose of the Policy be applied to the total sum outstanding to the Insured from the Obligor in the chronological order of the Due Dates.

Upon expiry of the Waiting Period, all external costs and expenses incurred by the Insured in the course of taking reasonable measures relating to the prevention or minimising of a Loss shall be for the account of the Insurer and the Insured in accordance with the relative proportions of the Insured Percentage and Uninsured Percentage.

14. Due Diligence

The Insured shall at all times act prudently and as though uninsured, use due diligence and do and concur in doing all things reasonably practicable to avoid or diminish any Loss.

No Loss shall be payable for those periods, whether suffered before or after the date the payment of Premium or instalment fell due; and
- (b) the Insurer may cancel with effect from the date of any Change of Control of the Insured; and
- (c) the Policy shall automatically terminate upon the Insolvency of the Insured.

The Premium will be payable in the number of instalments and the amounts specified, each instalment being payable to the Insurer on or before the dates stated. 26. Postponement of Due Date

The Insured shall not postpone, reschedule, extend (including by the use of payment plans), accelerate or otherwise change any Due Date without the prior written consent of the Insurer.

The Insured shall submit to the Insurer a properly completed claim form within ninety (90) days of first notifying the Insurer of the Loss.

28. Proof of Loss

The Insured must provide proof of Loss, including such evidence as the Insurer reasonably determines is necessary to prove the Loss.
