

Nexus Accident and Health Division Doubles Group Life Capacity

London, 8th January, 2016

Specialty MGA Nexus Underwriting Management Limited has announced that its Accident & Health team has increased their aggregate capacity up to £50 million for Group Life business with immediate effect.

The specialist underwriting team has over 20 years experience of underwriting Accident and Health business and Jay Thacker, Divisional Director, Accident & Health, Nexus Underwriting Management Ltd, commented:

“From the very beginning, the Accident & Health team has strived to provide the best for our clients and strategic alliance brokers; the increased aggregate capacity is just another step as we continue to provide high levels of excellence in underwriting.”

Nexus Accident & Health offer specialist coverage for a wide range of accident, sickness, travel insurance, group life and critical cancer underwritten directly or on a facultative basis, both as lead and follow lines within the traditional Lloyd’s market and for SME business through brokers.

During 2015 the Nexus Group made significant growth moves. In December it acquired Millstream Underwriting Limited, an independent managing general agency specialising in travel personal accident and sickness insurance covers.

In another move to further its growth strategy, in November Nexus Underwriting Asia (NUA) was launched in Hong Kong to replicate the existing successful portfolio currently underwritten by the Nexus Group in London with other classes of business to be introduced during 2016.

The acquisition of EBA Insurance Services in August 2015 saw Nexus being able to offer an extended product range that includes Surety, Bond, Dommages à l’Ouvrage, Fine Art and Specie Insurance, Life and Event Cancellation.
